

GEORGETOWN TEAM MAY GET WALL AND LEIGHTY

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

"Pete" Wall, captain and fullback of the Georgetown varsity eleven, and Orland Leighty, halfback, are expected to report to Coach Exendine next week for service with the team. This is the best news Georgetown men have had since the football campaign started.

Wall and Leighty were drafted and are now at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass. Both are students in the dental school, and, under the last ruling of the War Department, will be sent back to college to complete their education.

Wall is most necessary to the success of the eleven. It is largely because of his wonderful defensive play that the Blue and Gray made their fine record last season. Also much of Johnny Gilroy's great running is due to Wall's marvelous interference.

Leighty was an extra halfback last year, but when he appears with the 1917 squad, he probably will be tried out at end. He also is a fine defensive player.

Georgetown Leaves Today.

The Georgetown squad, in command of Graduate Manager Charles R. Cox, Coach Albert A. Exendine, and Trainer John D. O'Reilly, leaves at 3 o'clock today for South Bethlehem, Pa., where Lehigh is to be played tomorrow. The Hilltoppers will spend the night at Allentown as guests of Eugene Gorman, whose son is a member of the squad. The players are due to arrive at Allentown at 8:21 tonight.

Georgetown alumni from Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Conneautville, Philadelphia, and New York will be at South Bethlehem to see tomorrow's combat between Lehigh and the Hilltoppers.

Before leaving today Trainer O'Reilly, in whose keeping is the welfare of the gladiators of the West End institution, was undecided about the line-up. The Springfield game resulted in a large hospital list. The entire line is badly bruised, and O'Reilly may not allow some of the men to enter the Lehigh game.

Dudeck, the team's punter, is black and blue from head to foot. After the big freshman guard, was kicked in the side and is not likely to play at all. His injury is the most serious sustained by any of the Hilltoppers.

Smeech Is Injured.

Smeech, the right tackle, is also stiff and lame and may not take part in tomorrow's clash. Heaphy, the freshman center, may be able to play against Lehigh, but no decision will be made in his case until before the game.

Georgetown is likely to line up tomorrow as follows: Connell or Anderson, left end; Stewart or Pat Finnigan, left tackle; Zuger or Gene Gorman, left guard; Heaphy or Dorra, center; McMahon, right guard; Smeech, Stewart or Pat Finnigan, right tackle; Whelan, right end; Maloney or Hampton, quarterback; Gilroy, left halfback; McQuade right halfback; Cody or Geary, fullback.

In addition to those named the following will be taken to South Bethlehem: Etzel, Gene Finnigan, ends;

"Georgia Tech and Southern Football"

By SOL METZGER

Every lover of America's great college sport will be interested in what Sol Metzger, coach of the Washington and Jefferson varsity eleven, has to say about Georgia Tech and football in the South. This feature will be found in the sport page of The Sunday Times.

The North has hugged the honors in football for years and years, but Georgia Tech, coached by J. W. Heisman, an old Pennsylvania player, has put the South on the map, as the recent victory over Pennsylvania proves beyond doubt.

Don't miss reading Heisman's description of the "spread play" that won the 1916 championship for Georgia Tech.

BENZ IS PATRIOTIC.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Joe Benz, the White Sox pitcher, who did not take part in the recent world's series, has invested his entire proceeds of the victory, $3,000, in Liberty bonds. Other members of the team have invested in amounts from $100 to $1,000.

SHEPPARD WILL HELP.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Mel Sheppard, once middle-distance running champion, announced today his selection by the commission for training camp activities as civilian aid in charge of athletics at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss.

WILL PLAY MOHAWKS.

The Mohawks, Washington's fastest independent football team, will tackle the U. S. S. Reina Mercedes eleven Sunday at Columbia Park, the game beginning at 3 o'clock. The sailors from Annapolis always have a strong team, and should give the Indians stiff opposition.

WILL CHOOSE CAPTAIN.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 19.—Members of the Harvard football squad will select a captain tomorrow to succeed Bill Snow. The varsity players are fast rounding into shape and playing the game for all it is worth.

ARMY AND NAVY LADS IN BATTLE AT TOME SCHOOL

Army and Navy Preps, twenty strong, will go to Tome School, at Port Deposit, Md., tomorrow to battle the Tome lads. The Preps have been working hard of late and expect to be returned winners by a fairly one-sided score.

Last year Tome took the measure of the Preps on trick plays chiefly, and as Tome is not as strong in any department of the game, the Preps are expecting to amass a victory.

Coach Newberry has settled upon his team and will keep things going in line for the coming Georgetown Prep battle next month, which is heralded as the big prep school contest of the season.

The Preps have several strong players in Kyle, Williams, Hogan, and Hendricks. Several of the lads have had football experience before and are beginning to hit together.

Today Western and Business battle on Central's new stadium field in the first of the 1917 high school battles. Neither eleven can be called experienced and some in-and-out football is expected. It is thought that the game will be a hard-fought affair despite the greenness of the teams.

Western possesses two backs in Wrights and Simpson which compare favorably with other scholastic backfield men. The line has Myers, an all-high choice for center last year. The ends are green.

Conlon, quarterback; Alexander, fullback; James Hume, end; Hastings and Brewer, the guards, and Spille, right tackle, will be starting their first game. If they overcome stage fright they may give a fairly good account of themselves.

In Mike Reedy, captain of the Business team, and halfback, the stenographers have a member of a famous backfield of last year. Snyder and Schofer, of last year's eleven; King, last year's quarterback, and Allers and Held, tackle and end, have all had high school football experience.

Collier and Richter, played for Business last year. Coach Gormley has been making up for lost time with the Business bunch. Tuesday the stenographers battled the Georgetown Prep covering up their real stuff. The Preps won by 35 to 6. Wednesday the Business eleven faced the Georgetown freshman eleven and stacked them up all over the field. Last year the teams fought out a 14 to 12 battle. Business winning, scoring two touchdowns in the first period, but were outplayed throughout the remainder of the contest.

Coach Corgins will put his Tech eleven in a contest with the Georgetown Preps tomorrow. Having beaten Business the Preps are anxious to take the measure of the second high school eleven in the week.
